

NEWTON INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES & CHILDREN.

16th Session will open September 2d, 1850.
The location of this School, (near Whitesville, 8 miles east of Woodville, Mississippi), is retired, beautiful and healthful. The grounds occupy 18 acres, covered with a beautiful natural grove, of more than sixty species of indigenous forest trees and shrubs, besides a great variety of exotics.
The course of instruction is thorough and extensive, embracing all that is essential to a substantial and highly finished education. The Institute is furnished with suits of specimens in Botany, Mineralogy and Geology, and with a large and carefully selected Library, embracing every department of the Arts and Sciences.
It is also supplied with Apparatus for illustrating Mathematics, Geography, Astronomy, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Magnetism, Galvanism, Electricity, &c., &c.

Selling off at Cost.

AS it is getting fashionable with some to sell their Goods for cost and charges, I respectfully announce to the public that I will sell Goods a little cheaper than any that has been sold yet, as I am now selling out at COST, without charges. Call on me before going elsewhere, and you will be astonished at the LOW prices at which I am now selling.
Come quick, if you want Goods for nothing.
CHARLES OUREY.

PROSPECTUS OF THE Southern Press.

A Association of sixty-three members of Congress, Senators and Representatives, have constituted the undersigned a committee to superintend the establishment of a Southern Press at Washington city to be devoted to the exposition and defence of Southern Rights institutions—the dissemination of current information as to Northern Policy, and the course of Political Affairs generally, without reference to the old party lines of Whig and Democrat. Arrangements are now in progress, promptly to insure the issue of a paper under the title of "SOUTHERN PRESS."

for the conduct of which, suitable Editors have been engaged, who will also receive the aid of a number of eminent and able contributors.

There will be both a tri-weekly and a weekly issue—an latter to contain substantially the same matter as the former, and intended to reach those points of the country whose mail facilities are limited.

A Daily issue will be added hereafter, should it be deemed advisable or necessary by the press and people of the southern States.

The paper will not be exclusively political—but will embrace on its broad sheet the General News of the Day, Domestic and Foreign, by mail and telegraph; Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, Literary Criticisms, Original Essays, Literary and Miscellaneous; and, in short, all those items of general interest, the collected aggregate of which constitutes the interesting and valuable Newspaper. Great care will be taken to give full and correct Reports of the Proceedings and Debates in both Houses of Congress, as well as the action of the local Legislatures on the Southern question.

A limited number only of Advertisements will be received—the main object being to furnish a large amount of reading matter.

The sheet will be printed on a sheet equal in size to those of the other Washington papers, and the material will be procured especially for the purpose.

It is confidently hoped that every true friend to the South will aid in procuring subscribers, and forward the names, with the amount subscribed to some Southern Representative at Washington, forthwith.

Postmasters are authorized by law to remit subscriptions free of postage.

For the Tri-Weekly during the session of Congress, and Semi-Weekly during the recess, the price will be per annum $5 00 Weekly paper - 2 00

The price of subscription must be paid invariably in advance, and the cash accompany the names sent.

All persons procuring ten names shall be entitled to receive a copy gratis for one year.

A. P. BUTLER, JACKSON MORTON, R. TOOMS, J. THOMPSON.

Editors, and papers friendly to the enterprise, will please publish this Prospectus, which will entitle them to an exchange with the newspaper. All who comply with this request will send a copy of the paper containing it to the Committee.

Blacksmithing

AND

Waggon Making.

TRULY thankful for the patronage bestowed upon them the past year

Henry & Brother

take this occasion to offer their services again to the public, hoping that they will be favored with a liberal share of its patronage. They are both practical workmen, have carried on business a number of years, and are confident that work entrusted to them will be promptly, faithfully and satisfactorily attended to. Blacksmithing in all its various branches they are prepared to do, from the simplest to the most difficult patterns. They will give particular attention to all which may be sent them.

Mr. GEORGE HILDEBRAND will receive orders for making or repairing

WAGGONS, MARKET BUGGIES,

&c., &c.,—and we can assure the public that the iron and wood-work shall be equal to the best, let it come from where it may.

Our Shop remains the same location as last year.

We ask only the opportunity, to please the public.

HENRY & BROTHER.

Carriage & Waggon Making

AND REPAIRING.

SMITH & RICHARDSON, thankful for former patronage, hereby inform their old friends and the public generally, that they are now prepared to execute all work in the above line of Business on reasonable terms, and guarantee that their work shall be well and promptly done. We do not promise to work cheaper than any body else, but expect a fair remuneration for our labor, when our work is honestly done.

Their Shop is opposite Lady's Confectionary, adjoining Lewis's Blacksmith Shop

BLACKSMITHING.

HAVING employed the services of a first-rate Blacksmith, in connection with my own, I am prepared to do all kind of plantation work in a first rate manner, and at the usual terms and prices.

Gunsmithing is also performed with neatness and despatch.
